June dinner meeting

S.J. Amoroso

(L) Christina Regnier (M) Carina Salcedo (R) Brian DerMatoian

Thank you S. J. for another awesome presentation. We appreciate your involvement and the suggestions to the members. S. J. Amoroso demonstrated why they are a valued Business Partner to ASA. The benefits of partnering with S.J. is very obvious; they value team commitment.

ASA has been dedicated to serving their members since 1966, by providing:

Continual Legal,
Financial, Tax and Insurance Updates

Thank you Bob Linford for a great presentation. It's obvious Giroux Glass has a gift for detail; the company's representation was excellent, great job!

Thank you all guest speakers, for spending your valuable time at our dinner meetings. Your commitment to ASA is admirable.

Thank you S. J. Amoroso for the "Ipad" gift towards the raffle drawing. Your support is very much appreciated.

ASA MEMBERS: WE WANT TO HEAR FROM YOU!

We are always excited to hear from our ASA members; how our organization has made a difference with their company, regarding sales and/or connections with the general contractors. Companies who couldn't connect with particular generals are now involved with them. Whether it's to increase volume or connect with the general contractors; ASA is the place that offers educational speakers, general contractors and networking all at one dinner meeting. ASA is here to help with legislative initiatives, education, and most of all to help attract and obtain more business through strategic networking and meaningful events.

It is not uncommon to hear from first-time attendees, “this is one of the best dinner meetings they have attended.” We are also honored that our Business Partners encourage their subcontractors to get involved with ASA. They realize the value & benefits of knowledgeable subcontractors on their team.

Every ASA member has an opportunity to share their company’s informaton in the newsletter. It’s a great advertisement tool; it lets others know what type of service your company provides. If your company has received awards or other types of recognition, we’ll be glad to share it with the readers as well.

Please visit our new website, you’ll enjoy reading the submitted information and group pictures. www.asasocal.org
